After breakfast, we booked a slot to use the infinity pool followed by a 1 hour session of Aquaspin. It is located on the 27th storey where there is another swimming pool at the top floor of the building.

Next will be the High-tea for 2, between (15:00hrs – 18:00hrs) at The Marmalade Pantry on ground floor. Remember make a reservation so that they could reserve a table for you.

This afternoon tea is called “A Weekend Afternoon Tea Soiree” available at both The Marmalade Downtown & Novena outlets, in case you would like to go just for this high tea. Enjoy an intimate tête-à-tête in a cozy atmosphere with the signature Afternoon Tea Set worth $48++ (for 2 persons) – a selection of smoked salmon, roast beef, truffle egg mayo and cranberry chicken sandwiches, plain & raisin buttermilk scones, strawberry preserve, orange marmalade, clotted cream, petite signature cakes and two petite cupcakes. Comes with free-flow artisan tea by Monogram. Available on Fridays, weekends and public holidays from 3pm to 6pm

For those who drive, you may park your car within the building, and ask for a complimentary coupon when you drive out. This is not always the case for hotel in the city, some hotels does not provide complimentary parking. So this is a plus for me, staying in Oasia Downtown.

The service level is impeccable, very attentive staff at the reception and at the lounge. The rooms are spacious, modern and clean. Evening cocktails are comparable to many top bars in the city. Watching the sunset by the pool reminds me of a trip to Bali. We would definitely recommend this place for staycation.
